Sexual Violence and Harassments Policy

1. Policy Application

The Policy applies to all members of Bright Future Driving School including students, staff, directors and individuals who are directly connected to any of Bright Future Driving School initiatives.

Bright Future Driving School shall review its sexual violence policy, 3 years after it is first implemented and amend it where appropriate. This date is June 15th, 2026.

2. The Scope

The Policy applies to complaints of sexual violence that have occurred on Bright Future Driving School campus or in any training vehicle, or at any of its events that involve our students, staff, directors or individuals connected to Bright Future Driving School.

3. Purpose and Intent

All members of Bright Future Driving School have a right to study and work in an environment free of sexual violence and sexual harassment. This document sets out our policy on sexual violence and sexual harassment, defines the prohibited behaviours, and outlines our investigative processes for sexual violence and sexual harassment.

4. Policy Objectives

Bright Future Driving School is committed to providing members of our career college community an educational environment, free from sexual violence and sexual harassment and treating those individuals who report incidents of sexual violence or sexual harassment with dignity and respect. Bright Future Driving School will educate and train staff and students about this Policy and how to identify situations that involve or could progress into sexual violence or sexual harassment and how to reduce these forms of prohibited behaviours. Where a complaint has been made, under this Policy, of sexual violence or sexual harassment Bright Future Driving School will take all reasonable steps to investigate it, including as follows:

- a. Providing on-campus investigation procedures to students and staff for sexual violence complaints that ensures fairness dues process;
- b. Responding promptly to any complaint and providing reasonable updates to the complainant and the respondent about the status of the investigation;
- c. Assisting those who have experienced sexual violence or sexual harassment in obtaining counselling and medical care;
- d. Providing those who have experienced sexual violence or sexual harassment with appropriate academic and other accommodation;
- e. Providing those who have experienced sexual violence or sexual harassment with information about reporting options.

5. Definitions

Sexual Violence

Any sexual act or act targeting a person's sexuality, gender identity or gender expression, whether the act is physical or psychological in nature, that is committed, threatened, or attempted against a person without the person's consent, and includes sexual assault, sexual harassment, stalking, indecent exposure, voyeurism, and sexual exploitation.

Sexual Harassment

Any conduct, comment, gesture, or contact of a sexual nature that is likely to cause offence or humiliation to any employee; or that might, on reasonable grounds, be perceived by that employee as placing a condition of a sexual nature on employment or on any opportunity for training or promotion. Examples of sexual harassment include but are not limited to the following:

The following list is not exhaustive, but it should help to identify what may be sexual and gender-based harassment:

- demanding hugs
- invading personal space
- unnecessary physical contact, including unwanted touching
- derogatory language and/or comments toward women (or men, depending on the circumstances), sex-specific derogatory names
- leering or inappropriate staring
- gender-related comment about a person's physical characteristics or mannerisms
- comments or conduct relating to a person's perceived non-conformity with a sex-role stereotype
- displaying or circulating pornography, sexual pictures or cartoons, sexually explicit graffiti, or other sexual images (including online)
- sexual jokes, including circulating written sexual jokes (e.g. by e-mail)
- rough and vulgar humour or language related to gender
- sexual or gender-related comment or conduct used to bully a person
- spreading sexual rumours (including online)
- suggestive or offensive remarks or innuendo about members of a specific gender
- propositions of physical intimacy
- gender-related verbal abuse, threats, or taunting
- bragging about sexual prowess
- demanding dates or sexual favours
- questions or discussions about sexual activities
- paternalistic behaviour based on gender which a person feels undermines their status or position of responsibility
- Threats to penalize or otherwise punish a person who refuses to comply with sexual advances (known as reprisal).

6. Reporting and responding to sexual harassment and/or sexual violence

- a. A copy of the sexual harassment policy will be included in the enrollment package between all students and Bright Future Driving School; all staff of Bright Future Driving School will also be provided with a copy of the sexual harassment policy and training provided on it.
- b. Any member of Bright Future Driving School and/or students will immediately report any incident of sexual harassment and/or sexual violence upon becoming aware of them.
- c. Any Bright Future Driving School staff and/or student that has experienced sexual harassment and/or sexual violence are encouraged to come forward to report as soon as they are able to. Incident(s) should be reported to Sukhjinder Randhawa Director of Bright Future Driving School at Contact Number 647-721-8010 or brightfuturedriving@hotmail.com.
- d. Where Bright Future Driving School becomes aware, or should be reasonably aware, of incidents of sexual harassment and/or sexual violence by a member of staff and/or student or against a member of staff and/or student, on or off Bright Future Driving School, we will take all reasonable steps to ensure the safety of all employees and students.
- e. Bright Future Driving School will attempt to keep all information disclosed confidential except in those circumstances it believes an individual is at imminent risk of self-harm, or of harming another, or there are reasonable grounds to believe that others on our campus or the broader community are at risk. This will be done by:
 - (i) ensuring all complaints/reports and information gathered as a result of the complaints/reports will be only available to those who need to know for purposes of investigation, implementing safety measures and other circumstances that arise from any given case; and
 - (ii) ensuring that the documentation is kept in a separate file from that of the Complainant/Student or the Respondent
- f. Bright Future Driving School recognizes the right of the complainant not to report an incident or make a complaint about sexual harassment and/or sexual violence or not request an investigation and not to participate in any investigation that may occur. However, in certain circumstances, Bright Future Driving School may be required by law or its internal policies to initiate an internal investigation and/or inform police without the complainant's consent, if it believes the safety of members of its campus or the broader community is at risk.
- g. Students who have been affected by Sexual violence or who need information about support Services must contact the Campus Director/Administrator.
